Elbala Staff Chooses Yearbook's Theme

By: Tori Brooks, Editor

Every summer the Elba High School Journalism Staff participates in training sessions and meetings where they develop a theme for the yearbook. Many ideas are tossed around and debated but only one is chosen. This year we chose EHS Classified, based on The Elba Clipper.

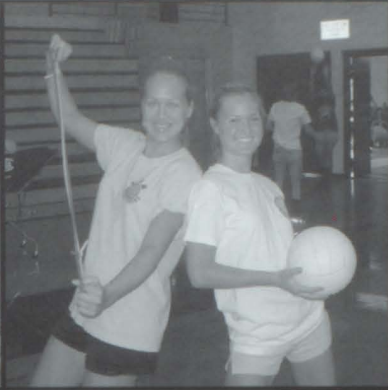

Each section divider page is designed to represent an article in Elba's newspaper. This year's Journalism Staff wanted something different which would be remembered. We broke traditions, and started new ones. With a tremendous amount of hard work it came together. Now, we have our own newspaper...

Section 3

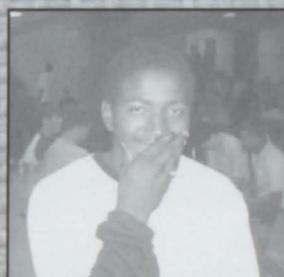

Just another day of life in elementary school.

One of the cutest things that goes on at the elementary school is Kindergarten graduation. Mr. Maddox, the music teacher at EES works very hard each year with the young graduates. The fifth and sixth grade bands, also taught by Mr. Maddox, perform at the graduation.

Each year the sixth grade teachers hold a graduation ceremony for the sixth grade students. A dance, also put on by the teachers and volunteering parents, follows the graduation.

Break and lunch: The two favorite times of a high school student during the day. They can gossip and stuff their face at the same time. Plus no classwork!

Congratulations on a job well done. We are proud of all your accomplishments. We hope all of your dreams come true. Lots of love, Mom, Dad and Traci

Chase,

I know we have not been getting along very good this year. Some of the things that have happened I am sorry for, but I know we can get past it all. I wish nothing but the best for you in the years to come. Just use your knowledge and your time wisely. You can do anything you want, as long as your mind is in the right place.

I love you,
Mom

Kevin

Congratulations, you finally made it! We're so proud of you and the person you have grown to be. Remember that life will take you wherever you want to go. Just be happy and remember we will always be here for you.

Ashton,

Good luck and best wishes, forever!
We love you very much.

Love always,
Mother, Daddy and Britt

Kaleb Dyess

Kaleb,

It's hard to believe that you are a senior this year. It seems like just yesterday that I was trying to break you from sucking your thumb. Now you are all grown up and have turned out to be a fine young man. One chapter of your life is almost over and a new one is about to begin. (Don't be afraid.) God will always be there for you. He wants to be your best friend and hang out with you 24-7. There is no better friend than Him. I want you to realize that you are valuable to God. He not only loves you very much, but also has put his hands on you for something special. Your life is a gift to you, but also to all those who know you. You lighten cares, share laughter and are a blessing to so many. Every day that you wake up and look in the mirror try to see yourself as God sees you - special, valuable and LOVED BEYOND MEASURE! I love you son - MORE THAN YOU'LL EVER KNOW and thank you for giving me the best Mother's Day gift I've ever gotten, YOU! You're such a blessing to me and always have been.

God bless you, baby,
Mom

P.S.

#1 When you go to college, always be kind to strangers - because your best friends now were strangers once.

#2 Today is the only day we have to do good. Yesterday's gone; and tomorrow is not a sure thing.

#3 Last but not least, I'd like to leave you with my favorite scripture:

And we know that all things work together to those who love the Lord, and are called according to his purpose.

Romans 8:28

Kaleb:

From the day I delivered you into this world - I knew you were a very special young man. Even in the nursery, your red hair and thumb sucking set you apart from all the others.

As you've grown, we've weathered some pretty tough storms. However, the Lord has always brought you through each test... and always will (as long as you follow him.)

It has been a pleasure to take you hunting in exotic locations such as Africa, South Africa, and Alaska. We never told you; but you were the best highlight of those trips for your grandfathers, Mark and me.

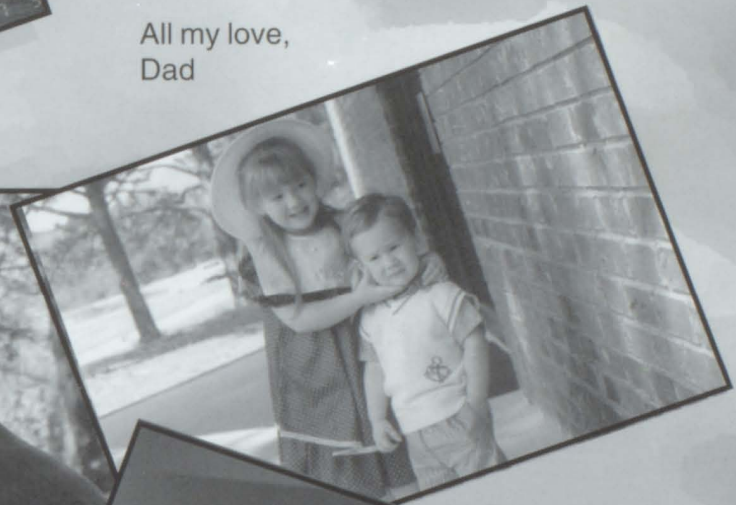

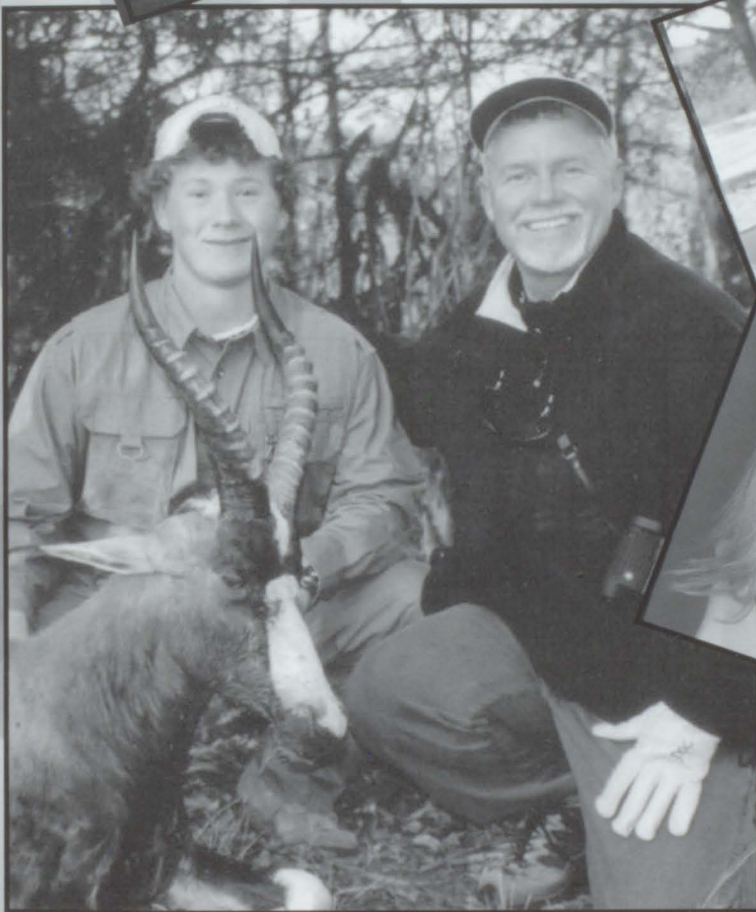

As you approach this transition to autonomy - never forget how much I love you, never forget your spiritual heritage, never forget that I'll always stand behind you - praying for God's best in your life.

All my love,
Dad

Kaleb,

I want you to know that I love you with all my heart and I'll always be around for you. Congratulations on all of your senior accomplishments.

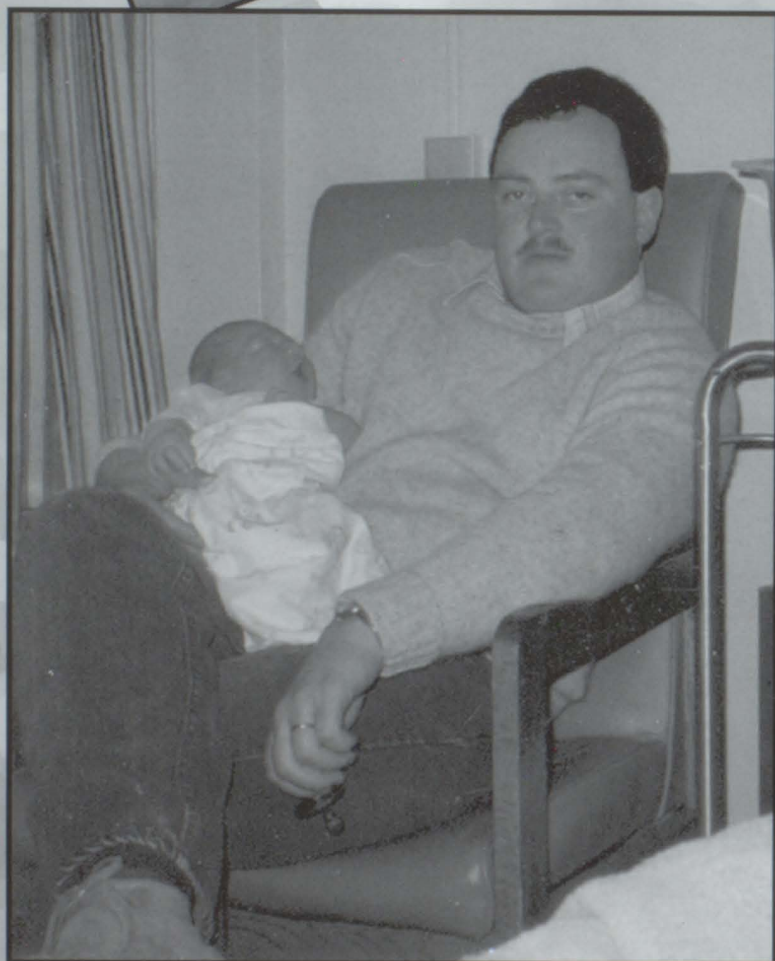

Love ya #64,
Katie

Ryan Gibbs

Over Mountains
Over Trees
Over Oceans
Over Seas
I'll be there
In a whisper on the wind
On the smile of a new friend
Just think of me
And I'll be there
Don't be afraid, oh my love
I'll be watching you from above
And I'd give all the world tonight,
To be with you
Because I'm on your side,
And I still care
I may have died,
But I've gone nowhere
Just think of me,
And I'll be there

In Loving Memory of James Robert Gibbs March 19, 1989

I can't begin to tell you how much love, joy and pride you have brought into my life. The years have flown by and I have enjoyed watching you grow into a young man; you have been the light of my life.

Always work hard and do your best and you will be anything you want to be.

Samuel Pulliam

Son, what a joy you've been! I count myself lucky to have been your mother. You have always been a remarkable child. Happiness and contentment have surrounded you all the days of your life. Humility is your best quality and that gentle spirit can sweep anyone off their feet. I am most proud of your commitment to God. You have truly been a fine example for anyone, including me to follow. I hope your dreams come true and thanks for letting me share a small part of your life. Now it's time for you to fly.

Love you,
Mom

Jennifer Grissett

Jennifer, it's hard to believe that you are a senior and graduating. It seems like yesterday that you were going to kindergarten. You have grown into a sweet and beautiful girl. Remember to always put God first and he shall direct your paths. You will always be Daddy's little girl. I love you so much. You will always be in my heart.

Love,
Daddy

It only seems like yesterday that you were a baby, and I was sitting on the porch rocking you and singing to you. You would say that you were my special angel. Your smiles, your hugs and our little talks will always be in my heart. You have grown into a smart, beautiful, and wonderful young lady. I will always be here for you, you will always be my special angel.

Love you, Granny

You started out as a plump little darling always getting hurt, or doing something to get Paw Paw's attention, and as always, I was there. One of my fondest memories of you was when I would take you fishing, but you had to be in a play pen. Everytime I caught a fish, you would clap. I also remember reading for favorite book, Go Dog Go. You will always be Paw Paw's special person, because you are so dear to my heart.

Love always,
Paw Paw

Where do I begin? I can't believe that you are already a senior. Time has gone by so fast. It only seems like yesterday you were my baby girl and now you are still my baby just in a young woman's body. You have made a sweet, lovely, intelligent young lady out of yourself. You stay just as you are, and you will go far in life. Always remember that whatever you do with your life, I will always be there for you. Congratulations!

Love always,

The Class of 2005

For the past thirteen years, we've grown together
Everyday was different, but the faces were the same
The first day was scary, a new school, a new place

We had to make friends and start our new life
No longer babies, we began to learn the basics

There were games of kickball and games of foursquare
Picking teammates was the hardest problem we faced
The days got longer, and the classes became harder

Then it was time to enter high school

The first day was scary, a new school, a new place
No longer children, we began to learn the basics

Lessons were taught about life and love

Friendships became stronger and we found where we belonged
Life gave us problems we weren't ready to face

Pressure was placed and faith was tested

Not knowing the outcome of most of our decisions

School became our life, our own little world

Now we say good-bye to the friends we made, to the teammates we had

It is time to move on, time to start our new life

The first day will be scary, a new school, a new place

Now young adults, we will begin to learn the basics

Pride

From racing to beat the football team to simply standing up to cheer for the home team, school spirit is displayed throughout Elba City Schools. School pride is bred in the heart and minds of each elementary and high school student. Supporting the school in each endeavor, from sports to academics, is a big part of Elba's traditions. "Tiger Pride" is shouted from each football player's mouth before tearing through the run through paper. "Pride" is also used to dismiss all band activities. School Pride is a great thing to have, and Elba High and Elementary Schools have plenty!

Senior vs. Faculty Basketball Game

The Senior Beta Club sponsored the annual Senior vs. Faculty Basketball Game. Every year since we can remember the faculty have won. The Class of 2005's team had many high hopes of winning. Unfortunately they fell to the faculty, once again.

What's

A cardigan is a classic,
it will never phase out.
Different colors and patterns, that's what they're about.

Dress them down with jeans, dress them up with pearls.

You can't go wrong
with them,
So, go for it girls!

The school year of 04-05
Was full of hip clothes that were bright and alive.
All one would see was tweed jackets and cardigans.
Who would've thought this style would come back again?
Dressing these classy tops
with jeans and pointy shoes,
One would think, "Oh, will this do?"
"Yes, it will," would be the correct answer,
And all would stare in awe, as they walk past her.

Tweed jackets keep girls warm and looking good.
These jackets come in every color that they possibly could.
Wear them for business, casual, or even
on a date.
These jackets are something no one could hate.

Pointy-toed shoes, most guys hate those.
But who cares? We know
these shoes complement our clothes.
They could be used as a weapon, but, girls,
please do not.
Because the Goo-Roo
says these shoes are too
hot!

Jeans, jeans, what more can
I say?
They're comfortable and look good; with everyone,
that's okay!
But to show off those jeans,
to add more "umph"
Make or buy some that are missing a chunk (in the knee)

Hot...

Boys have been dressing very "pimpish" this year,
(That means fashionable, just to make that clear)

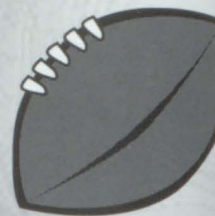

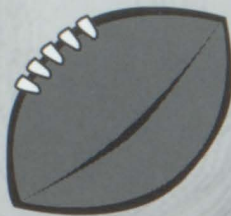

With button-ups complementing t-shirts,
One can tell the boys have been staying alert (fashion-wise)
To stay warm, throw on a graphic sweatshirt or blazer,
You guys would be looking as sharp as a razor.
Vintage jeans for comfort, nice khakis for a date,
Hey, guys, we forgive you if you're fashionably late!

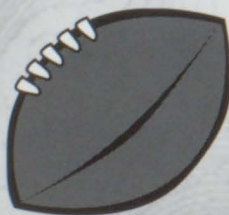

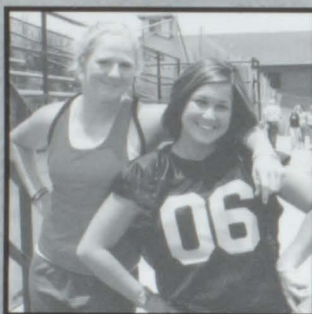

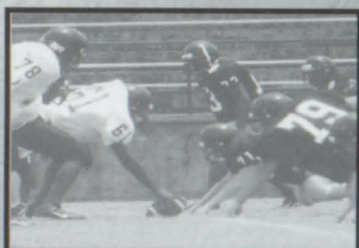

And as for your "kicks",
boys,
Almost anything's alright.
As long as they match and they don't look a fright.
Stay typical with Wallabees, or go funky
with a different style.
As long as they're for looks,
not for walking for miles!

Quarterback Brandon Kelley had an outstanding junior season completing 92 of 193 passes for 1336 yards and for 12 touchdowns and rushing for 469 yards and 67 carries and picking up seven touchdowns on the ground.

Wide receiver Mason Gulley led the Tigers in receiving gaining 681 yards with 29 catches and six touchdowns.

Junior halfback Kikko Logan also had an impressive season rushing for 1046 yards on 130 carries and an amazing 14 touchdowns.

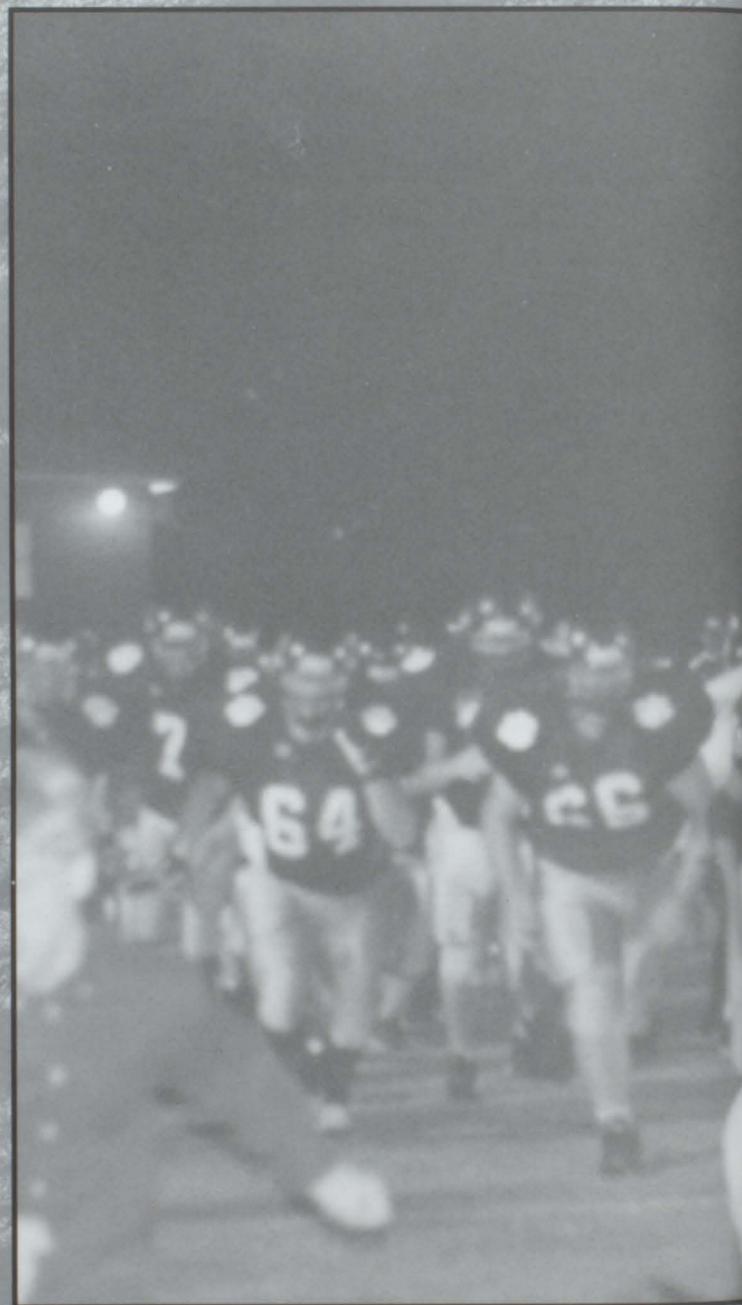

Senior defensive end Bradley Bar led the Tigers in tackles hauling in 104 tackles and 10 assists.

Elba Tiger Football

The 2004 Elba Tigers had a season that will be remembered for many different reasons. From the outstanding senior leadership, to the teams battle through their hardships, this team will always be cherished.

The 2004 Varsity Football season was a season certainly filled with its share of ups and downs. From their winless 0 and 5 start, to their closing 4 and 2 streak, the Tigers kept their spirits high on their way to a 4-7 record. The Tigers set foot on new stomping ground this past season, and clawed a mark out of the Class 2A division. With a season marked by many new events including the hiring of new Head Coach Scott Rials, the renaming of the field in honor of Coach Mack Wood, and, last but not least, the Tigers voyage back to the playoffs. The Tigers stood defeat in the eyes with a one point overtime loss to Calera, but through all the obstacles kept their heads held high and revealed to all what a real team really is. Truly this season was one for the ages, way to go Tigers and were all proud of you.

The Tigers unity is what makes them so special, not only to themselves but to their supporters as well as cheerleaders as well. It's tradition at EHS, to take to the field after the game with your cheerleaders and coaches and talking briefly about the game most importantly as a team reciting the Lord's Prayer and thank God that they are able to take the field once more.

The Tigers defense certainly stepped up the later part of the season dropping from giving up 38 points a game to only 53 points in their entire four game winning streak to take them to the playoffs.

The Tigers leadership was as strong and as guiding as ever under first year Head Coach Scott Rials and as you can see here the Tigers all rally around him and exemplify what a team really is.

Amelia Rhoades is a graduate of Kinston High School and Troy State University.

She has been a true pioneer for girl's athletics in Southeast Alabama during her 32 years in coaching at Kinston and Elba. She brought volleyball to prominence during her 27 years at Kinston where her team won a state championship in 1997 and she earned coach-of-the-year honors. Her teams were runners-up five times and coached in the all-star game.

Mrs. Rhoades coached softball for 22 years, basketball for 12 years and served as Kinston athletic director for nine years. This is her fifth year at Elba High where she coaches volleyball.

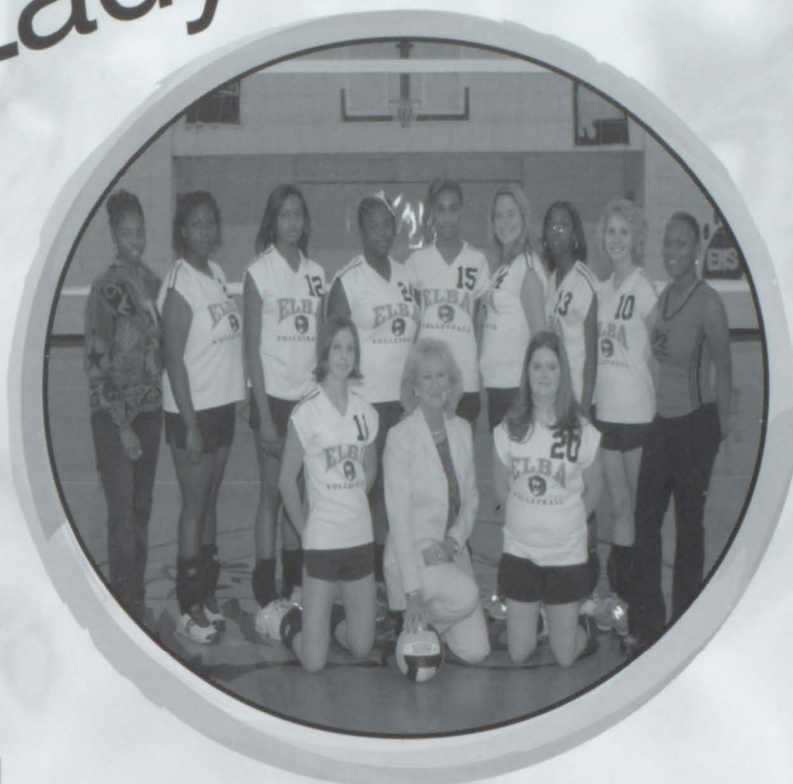

Stressing the importance of values, morals, dedication, pride and commitment, the impact she has had on hundreds of students is immeasurable.

A Season Full of Promise Cut, Oh, So Short

Entering the 04'-05' basketball season, the Varsity boys looked to be destined for great things. With a core of talented young athletes, the Elba Tigers were in full swing to become a basketball powerhouse.

After starting the season 3-0 and winning the New Brockton Thanksgiving Tournament, the boys were ready for a great season. However, that was not the case. All of the chemistry that had helped to boost the Tigers to their very impressive start to the season was slowly starting to fade away. The Tigers dropped their next three games and saw their record slip to 3-3.

The Tigers then gained momentum once again by making it to the finals of the Andalusia Christmas Tournament for the second straight year. But once again, cross county rival Enterprise came away with a win. Enterprise exposed the Tigers' main weakness, HEIGHT. With the tallest person on the team just over 6 foot, the Tigers had to rely on their skills and quickness to contend every single game.

The Tigers played through adversity and managed to stay alive in the area. With a heartbreaking loss to Luverne in overtime, the Tigers regrouped and came away with several big wins, including an overtime win over Highland Home, and seemed to be ready to turn their season around. However, the Tigers seemed to fall apart and saw their dreams of making it to state slowly start to slip away. After losing their last five games of the season, the Tigers headed into the area tournament to face Highland Home for the fourth time of the year.

Elba faced Highland Home three times in the regular season and came away with two overtime wins. The biggest meet however was yet to come. The Tigers fell behind early and had to fight back to make the game close. Despite their effort, the Tigers ran out of gas and made a quick exit in the area tournament for the second straight year. Elba finished the season with 12-14 record.

Head Coach Karl Bledsoe is in his 5th year as the Varsity boys basketball coach.

Winning Isn't Everything

The B-Team had an off and on season. After starting the season 5 - 0, the team lost its next seven games and looked to be in for a long season. With only three players returning from last year's team, the young players had to rely on the coaching experience of veteran head coach Frank Phillips. Coach Phillips taught the young players all of the skills that they would need to be contenders. Although their record is not the best, the Tigers still had a very productive season learning the fundamentals and skills that they would need to be future contenders on the varsity team.

The Tiger team was led by returning shooting guard, Jimmy Morris, who served as the captain of this very young team. Under his leadership, the Tigers contended every single game they played. They played the remainder of their schedule with great determination. They entered the final stretch of the season with a very tough road ahead. With lack of experience against bigger teams, the team managed to split their final six games 3 - 3, ending their season with an 8 - 10 record.

True Tiger Pride

After losing their team captain and leading scorer to college, the Lady Tigers entered the 2004 - 2005 basketball season with many unanswered questions around them. Who would step up and become the leader of the team? With only one senior on the team, the leadership role seemed to rely on Yolanda Reynolds; however, that was not the case. With twelve players on the team, the leadership role was placed upon the team. Lacking height and plagued by injury, the Lady Tigers had to rely on each other to get them through the season. Although their record doesn't reflect what they accomplished during the season, the Lady Tigers still managed to have a very impressive season. After starting the season 4 - 3, the Lady Tigers headed into the Zion Chapel Christmas Tournament with tons of confidence, coming away with a first place trophy. Hoping to build off that momentum, the Lady Tigers played out the remainder of their schedule with great pride. The difficult times that the Lady Tigers faced served as their backbone for the season. This season was not about wins and losses, but about teamwork. The Lady Tigers showed true Tiger Pride as they battled through their hard times. Despite their losing record, the Lady Tigers were able to come closer as a team and will be looking to become a basketball powerhouse next year.

Kneeling: Ashley Carpenter, Tiffany Crawford, Lafondra Thigpen, Yolanda Reynolds, Sydney Brunson, Leigh-Anna Bryant. Standing: Leigh-Anna Henderson, Lakisha Tyson, Ashleigh Waddail, Coach Carnley, Whitney Lawford, Stephanie Baxley, Kelekia Magwood.

Yolanda Reynolds averaged 8.3 points during her Senior year as a varsity Lady Tiger.

Coach Carnley lead the Lady Tigers to a 11 - 12 record this year.

Under his intensive coaching style, the young players learned the concept of team basketball, which served as their strength as they played throughout the season. "I am extremely proud of both the 7th and 8th grade teams," stated Coach Weeks. "I wish them the best of luck in the future." The 7th grade boys will be looking to make another run at an undefeated season next year, while the 8th graders will be looking to continue their winning streak at the B-Team level.

The Elba Tiger Varsity Baseball Team entered the 2005 season with high expectations. With almost all of last year's team returning and a drop to Class 2A, many fans expected great things for the season. Although, the record doesn't reflect the type of season they had, the Tigers still had a very impressive season. The Tigers managed to post several big wins over Luverne, Brantley, and 3 wins over New Brockton to stay alive in the area. However, the Tigers struggled with a newly acquired arch rival, Geneva County. Geneva County posted two wins over the Tigers, which would eventually keep them out of the state playoffs. Even though they didn't make the playoffs, the Tigers did end their season on a high note winning their last three games to end the season at 10 - 9. Coach Grimes stated, "The players played hard, did a good job and had a great winning season."

Elba queens have always reigned supreme. From the campus beauty Miss Elbala, to the prestige title of Miss Elba, our ladies can truly walk away saying they have accomplished something great. The competitions were stiff and the stakes were always high. With the anticipation of their name being called out and the crown being placed upon their head, the phrase "sitting on the edge of your seat" would most definitely be an understatement. When the lights were turned down and the crowns had been placed, the pageants as well as the hopes and aspirations of those who did not win were finally over. Those faithful few who now hold the titles do it deservingly with pride, respect and dignity, because that's the only way an Elba Tiger would do it.

The Coffee County Youth Leadership Program is designed to help students of Coffee County learn about their community and how they can be an effective leader within it. Throughout the year, students were able to see a variety of lifestyles that can be found within the area and learned how the people who live these outstanding lifestyles play a leadership role in the community. Learning was a major part of this program, but everyone was able to make lasting friendships with new people. It was an experience none of the students will ever forget.

RIGHT

The Auburn Tigers wrapped up an impressive, school record 13-0 season with a year that we all remember. A season landmarked by wins over 4 Top Ten teams, the rivaled Crimson Tide, Tupperville's Coach of the Year Award, and finally a second place finish in the AP polls. The plains haven't seen this much excitement in years and with all this success, Auburn is finally back in the driver's seat.

Black

It's hard to do much without a string of starters, but this year the Tide did just that. The Crimson tide finished the season with a 6-6 record but accomplished a lot more than just that. They showed the entire sports world how to stick together and defined the word "team" precisely.

Now is the time to say goodbye to the Class of 2005 and hello to a new set of seniors and some new faces. I wish the senior class the best of luck in the future, and I will miss you all. This past school year has brought many memories that I will cherish forever. As I enter a new phase of my life I realize how much this school means to me. I would like to thank everyone who has contributed in making this school year a success. Never take this school for granted, cherish every moment, and always have high expectations. As this school year winds down I am forced to say goodbye as your 2004-2005 Elbala Editor. I look forward to my final year as an Elba Tiger. Get ready because next year will be the best yet and always remember "EHS Classified".
